Results of last week's elections show that Jim Warnemunde will remain as president of the class of 1958. Junior class president for next year will be George Morgan and Ariel Bybee will lead the sophomore class. Nancy Gibson and Dave Ladd will head the Girls' and Boys' Leagues.

Congratulations to all the winners of this very competitive election. Let's do as well as those who came before us.

Many Saxons who had not been recognized for their services before were honored at the Awards Assembly last Friday. Among the presentations were special service awards and music awards.

Highlight of the assembly was the Saxon band playing "Night Patrol," a very entertaining novelty.

The annual spring concert was held here last Thursday night. Features of the program were presentations by the choir, girls' glee, orchestra, dance band, and Modern Dance Club.

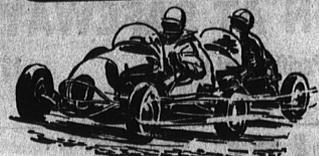

Speaking of banquets: The band will hold its dinner tomorrow night. There are several awards to be given at this time, also. Coming up is the sports award banquet June 6. Speech Club members held an academy awards banquet last Friday night. Eight prizes were given to members of the speech department who had

The Scholarship Society was sworn into the California Scholarship Federation and members of the baseball, golf and tennis teams were introduced.
